

The Organisation – Our Mission

Home-Start CHAMS offers support, friendship and practical help to parents with young children, in the local community of Crawley, Horsham and Mid-Sussex. We do this through a body of volunteers who visit families at home and we also offer weekly specialist groups for young parents, families with twins and multiples and those who feel isolated.

The Role

Home-Start (CHAMS) is looking for a talented individual to join the Board and contribute to the strategic development and further success of the organisation.

This is an excellent opportunity to put your skills and experience to new use, in a different context and to make a difference to the life outcomes of disadvantaged children.

We are specifically looking for an individual with Early Years' experience.

The Person

Successful candidates will be passionate about our ambition and will bring experience and understanding of how important children's early years are. We are looking for someone with:

- Substantial Early Years expertise with a knowledge of inclusion, and safeguarding
- An understanding of the key issues affecting Early Years and implementing best practice.

Our trustee roles are open to those of any or no gender, and we welcome candidates from any and all backgrounds who think they have the required skills and can contribute as a trustee. We would like to particularly encourage those from black, Asian and minority ethnic backgrounds to apply.
